-Nahum 1:7

Joe Barnett

Have you ever put your life in the hands of a stranger?
 Boarded a plane without knowing the pilot?
 Climbed into a taxi without knowing the driver?

Made a medical appointment without knowing the doctor?
 Accepted nutritional advice without knowing the columnist?
 Relied on a weather forecast without knowing the meteorologist?

It must pain God to see how quick we are to trust strangers; and how slow to trust him. After all, we have often seen the promises of people fall short, but never a promise of God.

“Not one of all the good promises the Lord your God gave you has failed,” Joshua said to Israel. “Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed” (Joshua 23:14).

You can hang your hat on the promises of God.

“Continue steadfastly in prayer...” (Col. 4:2).

*Ryan Clay has fallen and has a severe concussion. He is at home and waiting to see an ENT and neurologist. Julie has taken days off of teaching to take care of him and Matthew. Please keep them in your prayers.

*Raela Clay had heart surgery and is recovering.
